Ricki Pepin is a former employee of the FBI. She is a published author, columnist and international lecturer. Her primary passion is teaching citizens how to work together to restore America's foundations.

To that end, she has been leading courses on the U.S. Constitution, in collaboration with the Institute on the Constitution, for over 18 years, and recently produced three teaching DVDs to assist others in the duplication of these efforts. Her ultimate desire is to bring a return to limited, Constitutional government where everyone has the FREEDOM to discover and walk out their own God-given destinies of Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.
