

Next meeting:
6 p.m. — February 10th
Chestnut Village Center

Thomas Pitman
Darke County Veterans' Services

Dinner reservations due February December 6th

Members,

The DCRW's Club Officers are working on many things for 2020. Probably the most important is the collection of the renewal dues from the 2019 membership so that 2020 membership names and money can be sent to the OFRW. We had a very good increase in the membership for 2019 and hope to keep all of those members as well as add some new.

If you haven't been to a meeting in a while now would be a good time to put the second Monday of each month on your calendar. We would like to see all of you. The next meeting is at 6:00 p.m. on February 10th, at BRC/Chestnut Center.

I want to thank all of the 2019 members for joining and thank you for taking on positions of chairman and participating in all of the projects and activities.

Many of the programs for 2020 are scheduled or have a tentative speaker. Officers remain the same but will review the committee chairman to make sure everything is covered for the year. If you are interested in being on a particular committee make sure to let us know as we are willing to add at anytime.

Hope to see many of you in February.

Respectfully,

Betty Hill, President

Minutes Regular Meeting – December 9, 2019

The Darke County Republican Women's Club Regular Monthly Meeting for December was held Monday the 9th 2019 at Chestnut Center/BRC.

The Guest Speaker was Connie McEldowney with her remarks about "Rustic Hope".

Also in attendance was Carl Eubank the CFO from the BRC. Carl was in attendance for the photo op sharing the BRC receipt of the $200.00 donation from the Republican Women's Club for the use of Chestnut Center for the year 2019.

There were also three guests from the Piqua area who were followers of Connie McEldowney.

The meeting was brought to order at approximately 6:45.

There was a quorum present with approximately 20 members in attendance. The October minutes will be approved at our next meeting. There was no meeting in November.

There also was no financial report due to the absence of Cindy Pike.

The Books for the County Libraries and School Libraries have arrived and will be distributed at a later date. However the books ordered for DCRW members were given to those in attendance.

The Quarter Auction netted a profit of $783.43. Lyn moved to have the club - round that number up to be $800.00 and include the anonymous donation of $200.00 so the DCRW's Club can donate $1,000.00 toward the 2020 Washington DC Veterans trip. Motion was seconded and passed.

The president thanked the members who donated and those who went to Eaton to help with the Blue Star Mothers "Holiday Hugs" project.

Wavelene moved to donate $100.00 to the campaign of Mayor Willman, the motion was seconded and passed. Since this election has passed he will be asked if he can still accept this late contribution.

Barbara Fee moved to send the NFRW the $10.00 donation they have asked for to help support the Federation Trust Club Achievement. Motion was seconded and passed.

Two Thousand Twenty dues are due now and should be paid before March 1st. The increase is because the NFRW increased the amount we send to them by $10.00. So the amount due for members under 65 is $35.00 and the amount due for members over 65 is $30.00. Associate Members will remain the same at $25.00. This can be paid at the February meeting or sent to Cindy Pike, Treasurer P.O. Box 45 Greenville OH 45331.

The president announced the Wreaths Across America project will happen on Saturday December 14th. Anyone wanting to help lay the wreaths should be at the Greenville Cemetery at 12:00 noon.

Lyn Bliss collected the 2020 program sheets passed out earlier. This will help plan the programs/speakers for the coming year.

Carol Ginn moved to adjourn.
